Metzel in the chair. The mulation fee was increased to $5, which go into effect on Janary 1, 1896.

The committee on work made an excellent report, which showed that all union pictical workers in the city were at work.

Messrs, Edward Gibson, David Rabbitt and Oscar Walter were admitted as active members, and Messrs, Frank Roit, Joseph Cullen and R. Barker as apprentices.

An appropriation of $5 was made for the reflect of the Anacostla street car expectation.

The isent Brotherhood of Steam Fitters' teipers. No. 28, met in regular session ast evening at No. 737 Seventh street, Fig. report of the contract committee was avorable, and showed that there was only favorable, and showed that there was one one shop in the city which was not employing union labor. The report of the treasurer showed a cash balance on the right side of the beinger. Two new members were initi-ated and three applications for member-while were occurred.

A largely attended meeting of Mount ernon Assembly, Journeymen House Paint-rs, No. 1798, K. of L. was held last cening at Hagris' Hall, corner of seventh evening at Harris Hall, corner of Sevenin and D streets northwest.

The report submitted by the contract committee was very encouraging, showing that the shops throughout the city, generally, were employing unten labor.

Delegate Cook, from the Ugarmakers Urion, was present and made an appeal in behalf of blue label cigars, and it was determined that union men should ask for and use none other than union made eigars. Five new members were initiated and seven applications for membership received.

Beautiful Christmas Presents. The statelest of our old firms are to the front this Christmas with all that heart can desire for those we love. Among the most attractive is the weil-known and sterling house of M. W. Eeveridge, No. stering house of M. W. Erverloge, 86, 1215 Pennsylvania avenue, representing as he does the colossal and famed factories of the world of art, by direct importation. His beautiful warerooms are this Christmas filled with lewels in ceramics, from the most superb house adornments down to the himble, but real. China bijouterie, suit-tible for the prices of the pulliposities or athle for the purses of the milionaire or the laborer. It is a fallacy to think that you can spend money to better advantage by searching an out-of-the-way thoroughtare where initiation goodly are offered. The only safe place to buy, especially a gift to represent affection or friendship, is where represent affection of tricialsing, is where the name of the merchant is a goarantee of excellence, real ware and correct price. Mr. Beveridge is offering, at prices that astonish expert bayers, a lot of small gifts, whose rarily and beauty cannot be excelled. It is like visiting a fair to examine the beautiful articles in ail the well-known standard wares now on hand.

I especially call the attention of strangers in the city, to line, the first establishment in its line, in point of standing, in the manager.
